

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Brian S. Fritz's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals who leave the comforts of their home and family to nobly serve a cause greater than themselves; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Fritz has devoted over 23 years of his life making sacrifices that demonstrated no mission was too hard, no challenge was too great, and through tests and trials he emerged stronger than before; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership as combat engineer and ammunition inspector, and his service in Iraq has made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country. It is a privilege to honor his success, his sacrifice, and his service; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Fritz continues to give of himself, and our future is brighter thanks to his dedication; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Staff Sergeant Brian S. Fritz for over 23 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 28, 2015, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

STAFF SERGEANT BRIAN S. FRITZ DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen.
